

New Publication by the Institute of European and American Studies,
Biotechnology Policy in the EU and the USA,
 Edited by Der-Chin Horng, November 2011, 766 pages

CONTENTS

Preface	Te-Hsing Shan	i
Introduction: Debates on Biotechnology Policy in the EU and the USA	Der-Chin Horng	1
The Risk Analysis System of the European Food Safety Authority	Der-Chin Horng	35
The Role of Experts and Civic Society in Bio-Technology Disputes: An Comparative Analysis of European Court of Justice, European Patent Office and WTO Dispute Settlement Mechanism	Chien-Huei Wu	127
The Impact of 「Public Order or Morality Provision」 in the 「Directive 98/44/EC on the Legal Protection of Biotechnological Inventions」 on the German Patent Law	Fu-Ching Wang	191
A Study on Legal Regime Governing the Protection of Personal Genetic Information in the European Union— With Special Reference to the Protection of Privacy Rights in the Workplace and the Prohibition of Employment Discrimination	Cing-Kae Chiao	283
The Development of the French Bioethics Legal Regime and Its Regulations on Genetical Characteristics: A Focus on the Law of Bioethics 2004	Yao-Ming Hsu	329
Exploring the Legal Relationships in Human Tissue Research under American Law: Clarifying and Criticizing the Court Opinion of the Moore as a Starting Point	Chung-Lin Chen	399
Integration or Competition?—Regulatory Policies on Licensing Complementary and Alternative Medicine	Chih-hsiung Chen	453
Prenatal Testing and Disability Discrimination: The Bioethics Perspective	Yun-Hsien Diana Lin	541
An Appraisal of the Global Pharmaceutical Intellectual Property Framework from the Right to Health Perspective	Chuan-Feng Wu	581
The Status of Codex in the International Trade System: The Legitimacy of Applying the Codex Standards in the WTO Regime	Kuei-Jung Ni	695
Contributors		